WSIA's 45th Annual Conference

May 4-6, 2016

Davenport Grand Hotel, Spokane

The Washington Self-Insurers Association will host our 45th Annual Conference May 4-6 at the new Davenport Grand Hotel in Spokane, Washington. This meeting is open to WSIA members statewide and invited guests. Annual conference attendance averages 325 people.

This year's Annual Conference is organized around a fun and action-oriented theme, "Lights! Camera! Action! Spotlight on Workers' Comp Solutions." We'll be featuring presentations by national speakers like Jennifer Saddy of American Airlines and Tom Hebson of Safety National as well as regional experts like Labor & Industries Director Joel Sacks and top staff, and many other industry experts. Alongside general educational sessions, the conference will include three learning lab tracks focusing in-depth on topics from claims management, legal and regulatory compliance, and medical management of disability.
