News from the SIRAS project: Medical Bill EDI Information Session

Update to 7/8/16 Announcement – Webinar Registration Info: To accommodate more participants, we won't be using the teleconference number or computer link previously provided. Please see the instructions under Register Now for more information on how to join the session.

The Medical Bill Reporting Electronic Data Interchange (EDI) is one of the three main deliverables for the Self-Insurance Risk Analysis System (SIRAS) project. (The other two parts of SIRAS are a customer service portal and a risk analytic system.)

In our last communication, we let you know that the technical requirements for our Medical Bill EDI are now available through ISO, our third-party vendor.

Online Information Session

On Tuesday, July 19, we will offer an information session about the EDI. Labor & Industries will be hosting the session in conjunction with ISO. The session will help self-insured employers (or the entity submitting data on their behalf) to understand and interpret the technical requirements. Those who are not familiar with the IAIABC standard or data reporting through an EDI are encouraged to participate.
